Big News! Virginia Tech Innovation Campus
Location in the DC Region: Opening 2024

Virginia Tech is partnering with the Commonwealth of Virginia to build a revolutionary 1 million-square-foot Innovation Campus focused on graduate-level education and research in computer science and related fields in Alexandria, driving a new era for the region’s innovation economy. The Innovation Campus will be one of the largest and most highly regarded producers of STEM degrees in the nation and the commonwealth’s leading research university.

But we aren’t waiting to make an impact....

Graduate School Resources

• Graduate School offices are located on the 4th floor of the NVC in Falls Church, but serve the entire DC Area as well as online students. Contact us at gssoncr@vt.edu or 703-538-8327, and refer to our new students guide.

• The Graduate School can advise on academic progress, registration holds, withdrawals, resignations, change of campus, Plan of Study, graduate exams, etc.

• We publish a weekly student newsletter and announcements relevant to life in the DC Area, such as employment opportunities and social events.

• We host social events throughout the year such as Thanksgiving, Lunar New Year, and Graduate Education Week.

• Bryan Hanson is the Graduate School Ombudsperson and specializes in conflict resolution. Contact: 540-231-9573 or bryanh76@vt.edu.

• The Graduate School offers numerous opportunities for professional development, including courses and certificates.

• We support the work of the Graduate Student Assembly for the DC Area.
Based out the 4th floor of the NVC, the following services are available on site or virtually, depending on the need of the student. Use the contact information below to make an appointment or you can email gssoncr@vt.edu or dchokieonestop@vt.edu for a referral.

- Counseling is available to students through Virginia Tech’s Cook Counseling Center. To make an in person or telehealth appointment call 540-231-6557 or click. Also, access self care and support resources online.

- The Dean of Students office provides support and care for students in crisis or in connecting to university and community resources. For assistance, contact Tara Frank, Assistant Dean of Students at taraef8@vt.edu or 540-231-3787.

- The Office for Equity and Accessibility processes reports of discrimination and harassment as well as requests for disability-related accommodations. Contact: Gennelle Chatman, Equity Manager gennelle@vt.edu.
