WHERE TO PARK

Students and visitors to the Northern Virginia Center should park in the lower parking lot adjacent to the building. A map of the parking lots can be found on the NVC website. Parking is prohibited on Haycock Road, in the George Mason High School lots, in nearby residential areas, or in the commercial/shopping center parking lots. Please avoid the inconvenience of being towed by only parking in designated areas.

LOWER PARKING LOT – Daily Parking

- The lower parking lot is adjacent to the Northern Virginia Center (NVC) and is accessed from Falls Church Drive. Look for the white booth between the entrance and exit lanes.
- To park in the lower lot, you must pay for the parking using ParkMobile. The zone number for the lower lot is 85602.
- The current, daily parking rates (set by WMATA) are $3.30 Monday-Friday, free Saturday and Sunday and holidays. Daily parking is valid for 24 hours and you may enter and exit the lot as desired.
- If you are issued a citation for improper parking in the lower lot, please refer to the Parking & Transportation website for information on how to pay or appeal the citation. NVC Facilities cannot accept payments or modify citations.

VIRGINIA TECH PARKING PERMITS

- The C/G parking permit may be purchased through Virginia Tech Parking Services - parking.vt.edu.
- If you display the C/G parking permit in the lower lot, you will not need to pay through ParkMobile.
- C/G stands for Commuter/Graduate Student. No other Virginia Tech parking permits may be used.

METERED PARKING LOT

- Short-term visitors (less than 2 hours) may use the ParkMobile meters at the front of the building. The ParkMobile zone number for the meters is 85601. The metered parking is more expensive than the lower lot parking.
